		Qualifications of Teachers" and "TET Guidelines"
17.	I am in final year B.A. B.Ed., what option shall I chose from the drop-down option regarding my qualification?	B.A.Ed. ; similarly B.Sc. B.Ed. candidate may choose B.Sc. Ed.
18.	I have different names in my SSC, HSC and Aadhar card. What name should I register for GTET?	You may register with the name in your Aadhar card if it is an updated one. You have to prove your Identity at the exam centre through your declared ID that is Aadhar and the Admit card to be issued by SCERT. Note that no change will be accepted in name or any other data after 10th February 2023 and if you pass the Eligibility Test the certificate will be issued in the same name as it appears on your Admit card. At no point of time after the GTET-23 name change requests will be entertained. The onus of proving your Identity and your current name or multiple name lies with you. SCERT will issue a one-time certificate with the name you register on the GTET portal and the name that appears on your Admit card.
19.	Can I upload a certificate with an expired validity date? / What will happen if a wrong/invalid/improper document is uploaded?	All documents uploaded by candidates should be valid on the day that is uploaded by them and before the closing date of GTET application. Uploading of Certificate with a expired date of validity or defective or illegible copy of certificate will be treated as furnishing of false information by the candidate and consequently his/her candidature will be rejected at any stage of verification, even after the GTET-2023 result is declared. Read Para 17 of GTET-2023 Information Bulletin.
